Singapore youths record their best-ever gold medal haul at the 24th South East Asian (SEA) Junior & Cadet Table Tennis Championships 2018

The Republic took home 11 gold medals out of the 13 titles at stake at the South East Asia Junior & Cadet Table Tennis Championships which began on 4th July 2018, ended today at Naga city, Philippines.

The nation's previous best showing was 10 gold medals at the 2016 edition in Phnom Penh, Cambodia.

In addition to the 11 gold medals, Singapore's medal tally included 2 Silver and 10 Bronze medals. Singapore claimed all the Junior (U-18) and Cadet (U-15) boys' and girls' singles events at the tournament.

Both Koen Pang and Wong Xinru won the junior singles titles. In the cadet singles events, Andy Wong and Zhou Jingyi won the singles titles. Furthermore, our youths dominated in the Junior Mixed Doubles event, winning the gold, silver and bronze medals.

Held across five days, the 24th edition featured competitors from six other Asean countries - Philippines, Indonesia, Thailand, Vietnam, Malaysia and Singapore.

STTA President, Ellen Lee Geck Hoon JP, PBM said: "Surpassing the best medal mark is certainly exceptional. Our athletes have worked and fought hard over the last 5 days and we are very proud of their achievements. This milestone is testament of our efforts, and their achievements further attest that Singapore Table Tennis Association is on the right path of grooming our high potential talents into world-class athletes."
