MEDIA RELEASE

SINGAPORE TABLE TENNIS ASSOCIATION TO LAUNCH ITS FIRST EVER NATIONAL RANKING SYSTEM FOR AMATEUR TABLE TENNIS PLAYERS AT THE NATIONAL TABLE TENNIS GRAND FINALE

EMBARGOED TILL AFTER DELIVERY

The Singapore Table Tennis Association (STTA) is pleased to launch a nation-wide national ranking system for amateur table tennis players at the National Table Tennis Grand Finale. The National Ranking System, a first, for Singapore Table Tennis includes a calendar of 5 counting tournaments with more than 1000 ranked players.

The launch of the National Ranking System was launched only after an extensive period of testing by the STTA technical team and under the new National Ranking system, rankings are based on an individual's performance over the past year and more significant matches such as the National Table Tennis Grand Finale is more heavily weighted to help reflect the current competitive state of the individual. The national ranking of the participants could be found on the following link: <http://www.tournamentsoftware.com/ranking/ranking.aspx?id=3260>.

Below are the players who ranked 1st in their respective categories:

- Overall Men's Singles - 640 rankings (1st: Deng Yaoliang with 5850 points)
