STTA LAUNCHES INAUGURAL TABLE TENNIS CORPORATE LEAGUE

The Singapore Table Tennis Association will be organizing an exclusive Table Tennis League where corporate executives compete against those of other corporate entities and network at the same time. The Corporate League will be held on Sunday, 17 November 2013 at Lee Kong Chian Toa Payoh Table Tennis Training Hall, Singapore Table Tennis Association (STTA), 297C Lorong 6 Toa Payoh, Singapore 319389.

The Table Tennis Corporate League is a fun way for corporates to get their staff involved in a fantastic social game of table tennis. What's more, it will encourage the companies to lead healthier, happier lives and to be active in sport. Through the Table Tennis Corporate League, corporates can benefit from a healthier and engaged workforce and create meaningful experiences for its management and employees.

Er. Dr. Lee Bee Wah, Member of Parliament for Nee Soon GRC & President, STTA says. " This is the first time that the STTA is organising a tournament for the business world. And we hope to make this Table Tennis Corporate League an annual event and a permanent fixture on our local table tennis calendar."

She added, "I strongly believe that table tennis provides a powerful platform to strengthen the management and its employees in areas such as leadership, teamwork and character development. Furthermore, the Table Tennis Corporate League will create more opportunities to inspire more corporates and its people to live better through sports."

The top 4 winning teams will receive the Corporate League Championship Trophies. And the winner team will also have the opportunity to compete against the Youth Olympics Training Squad.

Your journalist and photographer are cordially invited to join the Corporate Table Tennis event at STTA on Sunday, 17 November 2013 at 5.45pm.
